

Brokering: a person acts as an agent or intermediary in arranging the transfer of DSGL Goods and Technology between two places located outside Australia and receives money or a non-cash benefit, or advances their political, religious or ideological cause. Brokering controls apply to anyone located in Australia, or an Australian citizen or resident located outside Australia

(<http://www.defence.gov.au/ExportControls/Brokering.asp>)